Over $2M and counting!

Our Annual Meeting and Grant Awards Ceremony, held on Monday, May 2, 2016, celebrated more than just our membership and grantees; Women Giving for Spartanburg has reached over two million dollars in funding to the Spartanburg Community in 9 years!

This year, the following nonprofits will receive a combined total of $214,000 in financial assistance: Project Hope Foundation (Project HOPE Foundation Spartanburg Clinic), Partners for Active Living (Transforming the Spartanburg Community through Play), St. Luke's Free Medical Clinic (Eat Smart), Upstate Warrior Solution (Rally Point: Spartanburg Homeless Warrior Program), Charles Lea Center Foundation (Charles Lea Outdoor Center), West Gate Training and Consultation Network, Inc. (Behind a Happy Face: A Behavioral Health Initiative), and The Arts Partnership of Greater Spartanburg (Seeing Spartanburg in a New Light). To see more details about the grantees, visit our website page on Grants: Grantee Information
