

Turning stock market gains into community investment

Gift of Appreciated Stock

Everybody wins when you make a gift of appreciated stock to The Spartanburg County Foundation. Your gains are put to good use. Your gift of stock is reinvested in your community, and it qualifies for an immediate tax deduction based on the full fair market value.

How it works

- You make a gift of appreciated stock to The Spartanburg County Foundation.
- Your gift can be placed into any of our charitable funds. For example, you can use your gift to create a Donor Advised Fund in your name, in the name of your family or business, or in honor of any person or organization you choose. You can then stay involved in recommending uses of the fund.
- Your gift qualifies for a tax deduction based on the full market value of your stock; you avoid the capital gains tax that would otherwise arise from the sale of this stock.
- We handle all the administrative details.
- Your gift can be placed into an endowment that is invested over time. Earnings from your fund are used to make grants addressing community needs. Your gift—and all future earnings from your gift—is a permanent source of community capital, helping to do good work forever.

Generating a return for your community

"Our stock returns provided the means for giving to our community," say Joanne and Gerald Johnson. That's why they joined the many people who choose to contribute appreciated stock to open a Donor Advised Fund. Last year, The Johnson Fund supported a local family outreach program, a homeless shelter, and a local theatre group. "Some of our charities are too small to accept direct stock gifts," says Joanne. "Giving through the community foundation eliminates that barrier." The Johnsons receive a tax deduction on the full market value of their appreciated stock, while avoiding the capital gains tax that would otherwise arise from sale of this stock. Gerald says, "It's a simple, satisfying way to give."
