

Spartanburg Herald Journal, Sunday, October 19, 2014

2014 UPSTATE STAND DOWN FOR HOMELESS VETERANS,
VETERANS AT RISK FOR HOMELESSNESS,
ALL VETERANS IN NEED AND FAMILY MEMBERS

Proudly Salutes

Women Giving

for Spartanburg

Grand Event "LET FREEDOM RING SPONSOR"
(event held on October 9, 2014)

Veterans Comments

"I felt respected for the first time in years."

"I haven't felt this proud since I was in the military."

"So many services in one place at one time. Please don't ever stop doing this."

"Finally, we are together again."

Participant Survey Outcomes (based on 410 returned surveys)

- *437 veterans and family members were served at 2014 Upstate Stand Down.
- *100% of participants rated Upstate Stand Down as a Highly Valuable Experience.
- *100% of participants would Participate Again in the event.
- *99.9% of participants indicated 'improved Quality of Life based on the many offerings at Upstate Stand Down Day.

Thank you, Women Giving for Spartanburg, for your patriotism. Thank you for providing renewed hope and a new beginning for so many Upstate veterans in need!

Upstate Stand Down is a project of Operation Restoration CDC, a 501(c) non-profit organization.

Event Banner, October 9, 2014

Women Giving for Spartanburg
PO Box 2646
Spartanburg, SC 29304

Women Giving for Spartanburg is a special project of

