

Greetings Women Giving for Spartanburg Members,

The New Year is upon us, along with a new opportunity to volunteer together!

Matthew Strickland, Media Specialist at Jesse Bobo Elementary, in Spartanburg School District 6, is planning the school's 2nd annual "Women Readers Are Leaders Week" to be held the week of January 30-February 3, 2017. This is a week where the school places special emphasis on girls becoming lifelong readers. They have various reading incentives throughout the week, as well as Guest Readers from the community.

Matthew has invited the members of Women Giving for Spartanburg to join as Guest Readers that week, reading during the school day for 20-30 minutes to a small group of female students. They are very flexible regarding days and times, and interested individuals may email Matthew with a few days/times available to volunteer, and he will coordinate. They also have early morning openings from 7:00am-7:30am to read to students before the school day begins.
