"FALL" for Women Giving

2017 Membership Drive Launches with Annual Fall Social

Women Giving for Spartanburg officially launched its 2017 membership drive on October 13th with its annual Fall Social, hosted by Katherine and Bert Barre, at their lovely home on Montgomery Drive. Caroline Goodman captured some wonderful moments (see below), and we were so glad to welcome so many members, past members and guests.

Many thanks to the members who have already committed for 2017! Letters and invoices were mailed on October 20th, and we are excited to celebrate our members (old and new) who are dedicated to women-powered philanthropy in Spartanburg!

A reminder that Regular memberships are $1,100 and Junior memberships are $550. Payments can be made by cash or check, credit card (online, additional fee applies), fund or stock transfer or through another organization like the United Way!

Junior Fall Social Reminder

Junior Members: We hope you can join us for the 2016 Fall Social at the home of Samantha Adair! Please remember to RSVP for you and your guest(s) at (864) 699-2511 or womengiving@spcf.org.

Why Pay by December 31st?

We get many questions about our membership and funding cycles! Women Giving for Spartanburg (WGFS) operates on a calendar year. Membership dues collected in 2016 affect the 2017 budget and 2017 grant cycle. We ask that all members pay dues in full by December 31, 2016, for the following reasons:

-Ensuring WGFS has the maximum funds available to give in the 2017 Grant Cycle in March (grant review begins in January!)

-Setting the 2017 Budget in a timely fashion. The WGFS budget includes events, grants, supplies, printing and postage, investment fees, credit card fees, computer services, and administrative staff.
